ORDER APPOINTING MEMBERS TO THE COMMISSION TO EXPAND ACCESS TO CIVIL LEGAL SERVICES

The Commission to Expand Access to Civil Legal Services was created by Supreme Court Order on September 23, 2013 in Cause No. 94S00-1309-MS-614. Its mission is to assess, enhance, and expand the availability and provision of civil legal services to Indiana residents with limited financial resources. The Court hereby APPOINTS the following individuals to this Commission, with all terms to commence on the date of this Order: Honorable Patricia Riley, Court of Appeals of Indiana, to serve as initial chair of the Commission; Honorable Thomas L. Clem of Madison County; Honorable Daniel E. Moore of Clark County; Mr. Charles Dunlap of Indianapolis, as a representative of the Indiana Bar Foundation; Professor Fran Quigley of Indianapolis, as a law school representative; Mr. Carl Pebworth of Indianapolis, as a lawyer in active law practice; Ms. Deborah Farmer Smith of Noblesville, as a lawyer in active law practice; Sr. Peg Spindler of the Sojourner Truth House in Gary, as a non-governmental organization representative; Mr. Eric Gardner of the Wheeler Mission in Indianapolis, as a non-governmental organization representative; Mr. Phillip Whistler of Indianapolis as a representative from the fields of business, finance or labor; and Honorable Martha Blood Wentworth, as the Chair of the Indiana Pro Bono Commission. The Court additionally APPOINTS four individuals to represent Indiana civil legal services providers: Mr. Norman Metzger of Indiana Legal Services; Mr. John Floreancig of the Indianapolis Legal Aid Society; Mr. Joshua Abel of the Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic; and Judith Stanton of NWI Volunteer Lawyers in Hobart.

The terms for Judge Riley, Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Pebworth, Sr. Spindler, and Mr. Quigley shall commence on January 1, 2014 and expire December 31, 2016. The terms for Mr. Abel, Mr. Floreancig, Mr. Metzger, Ms. Stanton, and Judge Wentworth shall commence on January 1, 2014 and expire on December 31, 2015. The terms for Judge Clem, Mr. Gardner, Judge Moore, Ms. Smith, and Mr. Whistler shall commence on January 1, 2014 and expire on December 31, 2014. This Court may make reappointments as permitted in the Order creating the Commission.
